

JUST RELEASED!

The 100-year history of the state's premiere horticultural research center.

*Written by
P. J. Chapman(right) and E.H. Glass (left)*

*The First 100 Years
of the
New York State Agricultural Experiment Station
at Geneva, NY*
1882-1982

An in-depth story of the people and advances at the Station that have helped propel food and agriculture into a multi-billion dollar segment of the New York economy.

Featuring 96 historical photos from the Station's archives in a handsome 309-page book. Available in hard- or soft-cover.

SOFTCOVER: $28.85
(includes shipping and handling)

HARDCOVER: $35.05
(includes shipping and handling)

Please send your order, and check, payable to Cornell University to:

Cornell University
Resource Center,
7 Cornell Business &
Technology Park,
Ithaca, NY 14850

E-mail: resctr@Cornell.edu

MasterCard and Visa by mail or phone (607) 255-2080.

- Prices include handling and mailing within the continental United States.
- Orders sent outside the U.S. must be prepaid in U. S. funds drawn on a U. S. bank.
- NYS residents must add 8% sales tax to your total order.

Please ship me my copy of The First 100 Years of the New York State Agricultural Experiment Station at Geneva, NY

Ship to:

Name _____

Street Address (for UPS) _____

City _____ State _____ Zip Code _____

Soft coverPrice.....$28.85

copies x _____

SUBTOTAL $ _____

Hard cover.....Price.....$35.05

copies x _____

SUBTOTAL $ _____

NYS Tax (8%) $ _____

TOTAL $ _____

*The First 100 Years
of the
New York State Agricultural Experiment Station
at Geneva, NY*

1882-1982

Written by P. J. Chapman
and E.H. Glass

