

ADVERTISING IN THE FRUIT QUARTERLY

The Fruit Quarterly is published by the NYS Horticultural Society and has established a reputation for excellent, in depth reports of interest to fruit growers. The Fruit Quarterly features content written by Cornell University scientists, Extension Educators, Michigan scientists and others. It is mailed to ALL NY and Michigan growers, four times a year. The subscriber list is growing. The publication features a glossy color cover with high quality text pages printed in color.

*Please note that we will continue to offer the “purchase three ads, get one free” advertising rate. This ONLY applies if you choose to advertise AT LEAST three times a year, we will give you the fourth ad for free! The three ads will need to be committed to at the beginning of each year.
